

The Wilmington, DE Branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) awarded its first scholarship for women to attend college and pursue a baccalaureate degree in 1914 and has continued this tradition for over 100 years. We awarded scholarships to 33 women who are residents of New Castle County for the 2020-2021 academic year. The awards totaled $100,000, with a range of $2,500 to $4,000 per scholar. The scholarships are awarded based on scholastic standing, financial need, contributions to the school and community, and results of standardized testing.

We also select the recipient of the Doberstein scholarship to Wilmington University. The current Doberstein scholar is Jacqueline Cameron.

Our new scholars are the following:

Sofia Alvarez	Julia Hurst	Rachael Moten
Oluebube Akujieze	Rebekka Kehoe	Dorcas Olatunji
Kayla Bright	Jacqueline King	K. Deborah Olatunji
Molly Clark	Annalise Maull	Erin Pyle
Gwendolyn Clerniak	Kennedy Medley	Katherine Rippon
Brianna Demanczyk	Hadley Morgan	Caroline Scalora

We have renewed the scholarships for the following scholars:

Madison Bailey	Tara Grier	Esther Park
Christina Bourantas	Kayla Hurst	Jessica Price
Raquel Brown	Helena Kirk	Rose Reynolds
Brooke Cooper	Naja McCain	Kelsey Wiley
Diana Flores-Caldaza	Taylor Oden-Randolph	Aniyah Wright

The AAUW scholars are graduates of the following high schools in New Castle County:

Alexis I. DuPont, Appoquinimink, Archmere, Brandywine, Charter, Christiana, Concord, Design Thinking Academy, Hodgson Vo-Tech, Middletown, MOT, Mt. Pleasant, Newark, Padua, St. Elizabeth's, Tall Oaks Classical, Tatnall, Tower Hill, Towle Institute, Ursuline, and Wilmington Christian.

Half our scholars selected are STEM majors. Our new scholars' majors include Architecture, Biological Sciences, Biomedical Engineering, Business, Cognitive Sciences, Communication, Construction Management, Economics, Education (Elementary, Special, and Math), English, Forensic Science, Graphic Design, Health Sciences, Human Services, International Trade, International Studies, Marketing, Neuroscience, Nursing, Nutrition, Political Science, Pre-Professional Physical Therapy, Pre-Veterinarian Medicine, Psychology, Radiological Science, Social Work, and Writing; Counseling (M.S.), Medical School (M.D.) and Veterinary Medicine (D.V.M).

Almost half our scholars will attend the University of Delaware and one is enrolled at Wesley College in Dover. The other academic institutions include Auburn University, Bucknell University, DePauw University, Duquesne University, Eastern Carolina University, Fashion Institute of Technology, Georgetown University, James Madison University, Manhattanville College, Moravian College, Northeastern University, Rowan University, Temple University, Thomas Jefferson University, University of Missouri, and University of Pennsylvania.